

Final conference of the REVOW project – Recognizing the Value of Work

October 7th, 2011

Location: Kosmopol, Fiolstræde 44

Copenhagen, Denmark

Recognition of Workplace Learning (draft agenda)

Applying RPL methods in specific jobs and linking to National Qualification Frameworks (NQF/EQF)

- 08:30 Registration
- 09:00 Welcome: Ms. Ingibjörg E. Guðmundsdóttir, Director of the Education and Training Service Centre in Iceland
- 09:10 Keynote on RPL and EQF/NQF developments: Representative from the European Commission (TBA)
- 09:40 Overview of the REVOW project: Ms. Fjóla M. Lárusdóttir, project manager from the Education and Training Service Centre in Iceland
External evaluation: Mr. George Koulaouzides, external evaluator of the REVOW project
The value of RPL for the participant: Participants interviewed
- 10:40 Coffee
- 11:00 Keynote on National Qualification Frameworks: Ms. Anna Murphy, National Qualifications Authority of Ireland
- 11:30 Keynote on Quality in RPL: Kirsten Aagaard, National knowledgecentre for validation, Denmark
- 12:00 Lunch
- 13:00 Parallel workshops and groupwork on key challenges
- 1) Initiating and preparing a recognition process of workplace learning
  - 2) Job standards-aligning with NQF/EQF
  - 3) Defining competence standards for specific jobs
  - 4) The role of guidance and support in the validation process
- 15:00 Coffee
- 15:20 Results reported from groupwork
- 16:00 Conclusion: Ms. Ingibjörg E. Guðmundsdóttir, Director of the Education and Training Service Centre, Iceland

The Recognition of the Value of Work (REVOW) is a Transfer of innovation project supported by funding from the European Commission through the Leonardo Da Vinci programme.

Education and Culture

Leonardo da Vinci